

To continue USAID and MTV EXIT's successful anti-trafficking awareness tour in Nepal in 2009, the documentary Road to EXIT: MTV EXIT Live in Nepal 09 will be broadcasted on Kantipur TV on 10th January 2010. The 60-minute TV special, hosted by Malvika Subba, MTV's ambassador for Nepal, features exclusive interviews with the artists like Sunidhi Chauhan, Kranti Ale and Nima Rumba along with their performance and provides viewers with key anti-trafficking information and hotline numbers to protect themselves from trafficking. The program also chronicles the harrowing story of two trafficking survivors who were enslaved and sexually exploited.

MTV EXIT Live in Nepal is part of a series of MTV EXIT television programming that is produced in partnership with USAID to raise awareness and increase prevention of human trafficking across Asia Pacific.
